

2-July-1757	Nawab Siraj-ud-Daula was captured and assassinated. He was stabbed with a knife by Muhammad Beg at the instance of Miran, son of Mir Zafar.
2-July-1905	Shantiswaroop Dhavan, former Governor of West Bengal, was born.
2-July-1926	Ram Sewak Yadav, social reformer, politician and leader, was born in Tala Village, Uttar Pradesh.
2-July-1928	Nandkishor Bal, great Odia poet, passed away.
2-July-1929	Amritlal Basu, famous Bengali playwright, died.
2-July-1938	Chandra K. N. Patel was born at Baramati near Pune. In 1974, he was the youngest scientist to be elected to the US National Academy of Sciences. Besides, he is the recipient of the Ballantine Medal, The Worykin Award and The lamme Medal. Chandra K. N. Patel is the Executive Director of one of the divisions of the AT&T Bell Laboratories, USA.
2-July-1941	Muhammad Baqa Jilani, one Test for India, 0-55, died at the age of 29.
2-July-1950	Yusuf Meharali, socialist leader, died.
2-July-1961	Prof M S Thacker, DG-CSIR, laid the foundation stone for the wind tunnel complex.
2-July-1970	Pandit Kunjilal Dubey, freedom fighter, educationalist and politician, passed away.
2-July-1972	'Shimla Treaty' was signed between Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and her Pakistani counterpart Zulfikar Ali Bhutto.
2-July-1991	Nanankal Krishna Pillai, famous Malayalam poet, died.
2-July-1992	Six new ministers inducted into the Union Cabinet.
2-July-1993	Delhi High Court stays the Lok Sabha Speaker's order disqualifying four Janata Dal MPs under the anti-defection law.
2-July-1993	ONGC converted into corporation by ordinance.
2-July-1997	Screening for Hepatitis C made mandatory all over India.
2-July-1998	India and Sri Lanka sign an agreement on promoting agricultural research in New Delhi.
2-July-1999	In Jammu and Kashmir, nine people are killed by unidentified militants.
2-July-1999	Medha Patkar of Narmada Bachao Andolan (NBA) planned a 'fast' to protest against the Sardar Sarovar Project (SSP).
2-July-1999	Sahara India, sponsor of the Sahara Cup annual cricket series between India and Pakistan in Canada, withdrew sponsorship in view of the Kargil conflict.
2-July-1999	The Indian Army launches a three pronged attack on Kargil. India is firm on Pakistan pullout from the area.
2-July-2000	At least 30 people had died after a boat collapsed in Kumla river near Pratapur in Madhubani district of Bihar.